Jennifer's Blog

It's May! It's semi warm! I'm behind on getting my blog and newsletter written so I'm spending my Thursday evening doing the writing instead of knitting or anything crafty.

First up is the news that you have been waiting for. Ok, maybe not but there are probably at least 25 of you who are. Fall Retreat has been scheduled. Join us on Friday, October 11th to Sunday, October 13th at our Annual Fall Retreat! The forms and prices are attached at the end of the newsletter! As usual our maximum number will be 25 since that's all the tables the hotel has! If you have never been on one of our retreats I hear we are more fun than others! Get your deposit in to register before your chance of having a weekend away gets filled! Let's jump right in and start with our June classes! If you have been waiting for an evening Quilting 101 June is your 2019 chance! Mom will be starting a session on Friday evenings on June 7th. If you want to learn to quilt or just want a fun Friday night out Quilting 101 is for you! Do not wait to register! The class is limited to three students to give everyone the attention they need.

Have you seen that we now have Day and Evening Crochet/Knit Klubs? First Monday and First Thursdays are all about yarn! Come in for one or come in for both. It's a great time to just get out of the house and get some yarn therapy! We also have started a charity knit/crochet time. The second Tuesday is for you to come in and make something for a charity you support or one of ours. After one month we have chemo caps, premie hats and knockers being made! Still Reading? We also have a great knitting class for you. Come in and learn how to make a scarf from the feathers and fan pattern. Once learned your possibilities are endless! Mom is busy in June, She has a second class for you all. Come in and learn how to do reverse applique. She has some great petals that you can make with a template. The class is a table topper but there are so many things you can do. Place-mats, wall hanging, or even a quilt! We are only having a day class, but if at least two of you express interest I might be able to con (convince) one of the ladies to do an evening session in July!

The last class is one of most favorites. Our Machine Embroidery class is always the place to be. This month Verna will be doing a Flag Placemat to get you all ready for the Fourth of July and any other patriotic holiday!

Now that classes have been marketed let's see what else I can tell you about to fill up all this white space. Have you been checking out our item(s) of the week? If you haven't you are missing some great deals! I have a list of them to do and you never know when I will do another round of certain items.

Have you played on a Brother Machine lately? Come play on the top of the line machine. Fall in love. We can find you the machine that fits into your budget. We do financing. We do trade ins. We do personal lessons on most machines!

Since I failed filling up the white space I will share some pictures of our many Sew Teach me graduates. Know a child 8 to 18 who would like to learn to sew! Come on in and we can get them registered

Remember the one with the most stash wins
