Jennifer's Blog

Can you believe Christmas is 9 days away as you read this!

First up! The Spring 2017 Retreat registration email went out a couple of weeks ago! If you missed the email or are only on the monthly newsletter list the information and registration form is attached to this newsletter! The price has stayed the same. We have a new caterer due to the other not being available and we are trying something new for lunches! Get your registration in and make sure you read ALL the information!

Second bit of info for you. If you have not been in since December 9th, you have not seen that we now have the technology to process CHIP credit cards. From this point on you will be handling your own credit cards! We also have started to use a new POS system. Please be patient with us as we learn our new system!

There will also be new rewards program going into affect. You will still earn a $5.00 gift card for every $150 spent. However, this system does not track yardage. I apologize that we have to drop this program.

Speaking of new rules; as of January 2nd when you register for a class you will have to pay at the time of signup. This is one of our new POS system requirements. If you were to cancel up to 24 hours in advance you will get refund of the full amount on a Quilters Depot Gift Card. If you cancel with less than 24 hours notice you will get half of the class price on a Quilters Depot Gift card. If you do not show for a class without notice you will not get your money back. I am sorry I have to do this, but first the teachers and I make sure we have enough patterns, kits and such ready for you and this is not always easy. When you just do not show we are stuck with them. Second, when we have a filled class with people on the waiting list and you do not show you are denying someone else the opportunity to take a class they really want! I hope you all understand. We will give you two days if you call in to pay for the class by check or by coming in. You can still register but your spot will not be written in stone until you pay!
